

Membership

FAAE is on a mission to ensure that every student in Florida has a complete education which includes the arts. The arts are essential to educating the whole child, providing avenues for expression and for understanding and appreciating the world in which we live. Research continues to show the many ways that students benefit from arts education. Please join us on this mission. There is a membership level for everyone -- from students and individuals to organizations and philanthropists. When an organization joins FAAE, it lends financial support and adds a voice to the chorus of voices supporting arts education for every Florida student. Florida's students deserve arts education.

Benefits of Membership

Individual members receive bi-annual newsletters, frequent updates on state and local issues and education policy, arts-specific professional development opportunities, and the latest research and best practices in arts education, as well as special registration rates for programs and events.
